

Beyond PhD a workshop by George Ligeti

Would you like to receive feedback on your thesis? Would you like to complete it? Have you ever thought about labour-market - beyond PhD?

You are most welcome on interactive "Beyond PhD" workshop on 20 June 2014, where you have opportunity to confront your aims, desires, fears and other motivations or obstacles.

The workshop has three dimensions:

1. dimension: "research as project" - learn to :

- organize your research as a project
- enhance productivity, but decrease stress and anxiety
- organize time, space and thoughts better
- simplify the process and avoid unnecessary steps

2. dimension: "communication"

- learn how to motivate yourself
- communicate with advisor (mentor) and science community
- learn to ask good and productive questions
- practice presentation and self-representation skills, communicate effectively

3. dimension: "self-awareness"

- improve career management skills
- step out of your everyday life to learn new things about it, and sometimes laugh at it
- think of yourself as a literate who works not only for the ivory tower, but for the broader society

DATE AND TIME

20 June 2014: 10:00 - 17:00

There will be max. 12 participants!
